SUNDAY Fun Days

Enjoy family-friendly craft projects,
family tours, movement activities,
artist demonstrations, and more!

Monthly on 3rd Sundays
1:00 - 4:00 p.m. | All ages

Free after museum admission.

FALL 2011

18 September – Hat Attack!

Craft a wacky hat using unexpected materials, watch woodturner Jerry Measimer make a hat out of wood, move to the groove of the Mexican hat dance, and go on a What's That on Your Head? scavenger hunt.

16 October – Romare Bearden: Southern Recollections

Make your own “Mecklenburg memories” at this celebration of master collage artist Romare Bearden! Make a collage, garden with Sow Much Good, attend a book reading, and see a film about the artist.

20 November – Twine, Knot, Wrap, and Twist

Celebrate 50 years of fiber art, from the miniature to the monumental, by international artist Sheila Hicks. Create a sculpture with artist Janet Lasher, try out stitching and weaving, tour the exhibition, and get “twisted” at a family yoga session.

Sunday Fun Days are always free for Mint members.

Museum Admission: $10 adults, $8 seniors, $5 children 5-17, children 4 and under free
Admission to both museum locations is valid for two days from the date of purchase.

This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts.
