Affiliate Groups

Affiliate Groups provide members with additional opportunities to become involved in the Museum through volunteering, educational and social events. For details, call 704/337-2022 or visit mintmuseum.org.

CHARLOTTE GARDEN CLUB Further your knowledge of horticulture by attending programs led by experts in the field. Annual fundraisers include the Fall Bulb Sale and Spring Garden Tour.

DELHOM SERVICE LEAGUE Develop your interest in ceramics by studying the world of potters and their cultures, from ancient China to contemporary America. Hosts the Potters Market Invitational to raise funds for the Mint.

DOCENTS OF THE MINT Docents engage Museum visitors by leading tours and programs related to collections and special exhibitions. Visits to local artists' studios are optional. A training program is required.

FOUNDERS' CIRCLE The Founders' Circle is the national support affiliate of the Mint Museum of Craft + Design and partners with MMC+D to promote appreciation of craft and design. The annual Mint Condition Gala raises funds to support programs, exhibitions and acquisitions.

APPRENTICE CIRCLE A support organization of the Founders' Circle designed specifically for individuals up to age 50 who want to develop their contemporary craft collecting skills through hands-on, educational and social experiences.

FRIENDS OF THE MINT The Friends sponsor a series of lectures featuring noted speakers in the art world, as well as special private trips to museums in other cities.

MINT MUSEUM AUXILIARY The Auxiliary provides funds for educational projects and acquisitions for the Mint. They accomplish this through two annual fundraisers, the "Mint to Be Yours" tag sale and the "Room to Bloom" celebration.

YOUNG AFFILIATES OF THE MINT (YAMs)

Join with young professionals ages 21 to 45 who promote and support the Mint through social, educational and fundraising events.

(may join on this application)

Curator's Circles

THE CURATOR'S CIRCLE FOR AMERICAN ART

A group of collectors and enthusiasts who are dedicated to learning about and supporting American art. Activities include visits to collectors' homes, special access to experts in the field, curator-led trips and behind-the-scenes looks at Museum projects.

THE CONTEMPORARY COALITION Sustains the vision of the Contemporary Art Collection through a range of programs including special exhibition previews, lectures, tours of studios and private collections.

THE CURATOR'S CIRCLE FOR NON-WESTERN ART

Celebrates the traditions of the Americas and Africa. The group meets four times a year for informal lectures by specialists from the fields of art history, anthropology, and the world of art.
